The Fruit Bowl

BY BELLATRIXIE — 2024-11-28

Bella was a naughty girl with a knack for finding adventure. One moonlit night, she crept into an old, abandoned castle. The halls were silent, and the air was thick with mystery. As she explored, she stumbled upon a grand dining hall with a massive bowl of fruit at the side.

Feeling tired from her journey, Bella climbed into the bowl, nestling herself among the apples, oranges, and grapes. The soft, fruity aroma was comforting, and she quickly drifted off to sleep. In her dreams, she found herself in a magical orchard where the succulent fruits were alive and friendly, inviting her to join their games and songs.

When Bella woke up, she was still in the fruit bowl, but the castle seemed a little less eerie and a lot more enchanting. She climbed out, grabbed a juicy apple, and made her way back home, her heart full of wonder and excitement for her next adventure.
